Contemporary Art Fund
The Contemporary Art Fund, established in 1999, consists of donors who have made a commitment to the Museum to help establish a special art fund that will enable the Museum to present contemporary art exhibitions and acquire contemporary works for the permanent collection. Gifts from the following donors, as of September 30, 2004, have built a fund totaling nearly $3.9 million since inception.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Faulconer
Nancy and Tim Hanley
The Hoffman Family Foundation/ Marguerite and Robert Hoffman
Evelyn P. and Edward W. Rose

Annual Membership
Membership revenue provides unrestricted operating support to help sustain Museum programs throughout the year. Last year, all Museum memberships provided more than $3.3 million for annual programs. Museum members enjoyed a variety of special events, including exhibition openings, lectures, and symposia. Many individual members also participated in other special membership programs, such as Friends groups, Kids Club, Jazz Club, and the Professional Members League.

The varied levels of individual memberships offer opportunities for giving ranging from Monet Circle ($15,000 and above) to Active ($60). Following is a list of members and membership levels at the Junior Associate level ($550) and above as of September 30, 2004.

ANNUAL FUND

Annual gifts from individuals, organizations, and foundations aid the Museum in presenting special exhibitions, hosting education programs, and conserving our collections. The important contributions help bridge the gap between the operating expenses of running a museum and the revenue generated from resources such as membership dues, interest from our endowment, Museum Store sales, and funding from the City of Dallas. The following donors made charitable contributions of $1,000 or more to the Museum in the 2003–2004 fiscal year.

$20,000+
Edwin L. Cox/Ed Cox Foundation
Mr. and Mrs. H. Charles Price
